ORDER:

The learned Advocate General for the State of Telangana, High Court of Judicature at Hyderabad, in his Letter in the seventh read above, has stated that the distribution of regular employees has not been completed so far and it may take some more time for finalisation of employees. The nature of working of Law Offices in the High Court is quite different and distinct with that of other Departments in Secretariat. The Advocate General and the Additional Advocate General maintained residential offices out of court hours and on holidays. Special Government Pleaders and Government Pleaders attached to the above Officers attend the residential offices. Many high and senior officials visit these officers on their departmental litigation work. Counters have to be drafted by the Law officers within the deadlines prescribed by the Courts. Opinions have to be rendered in the matters referred to by the departments. The Advocate General/Additional Advocate General functioning with barest minimal staff. However, the Office has been functioning smoothly with the contractual employees since last one year and hence there is dire necessity to continue the posts sanctioned in the G.O sixth read above for another year or till regular employees are posted and therefore requested to continue the posts i.e five (5) Senior Stenographers /Data Entry Operators, six (6) Junior Assistants and six (6) Office Subordinates in term of the orders contained in the G.O. first and fifth read above at the earliest so that the work is not hampered for want of assistance.

2. Government after careful examination of the matter, hereby permits the Advocate General for the State of Telangana to continue the following posts on contract basis for a further period of one year w.e.f 22.09.2015, till regular arrangements are made to the posts or until further orders of the Government, whichever is earlier.
